

Profile:

Dr. Mallikarjun Hugar is an Assistant Professor at the Department of Public Administration, Central University of Karnataka, Kalaburagi. Earlier Dr. Mallikarjun Hugar worked as Faculty in Department of Political Science with teaching experience of eight years in academic. His Doctoral Thesis is on Changing Dynamics of India-United States Relations in the Post-Cold War Period (1991-2011) and also his UGC-DRSHPDF in on The Role of Civil Society in the Indo-US Relations and also another ICSSR-PDF is on Article 371(J) and its Influence on the Socio-Economic and Political Development of Hyderabad-Karnataka Region. He delivered several lectures for Undergraduate and Post Graduate Students in Gulbarga University, Kalaburagi. He had published Research Papers in National Reputed Journals. He had also contributed several papers at Regional, National and International Seminars/Conference on various emerging concepts of International Relations and Public Administration.

Teaching Specialization:

His subjects specialization for teaching includes Indian Constitution, Local Governance in India, Indian Administration, Globalization and Public Administration, Public Policy in India and Leadership Theories.

Research Specialization:

His research area includes International Relations, Urban Governance, Indian Politics and Health Administration

