

Profile:

Dr. Sandeep Inampudi is an Assistant Professor at the Department of Public Administration, Central University of Karnataka, Kalaburagi. Earlier, Dr. Sandeep worked as Faculty in Department of Political Science & Public Administration with teaching experience of Six Years in academics and also worked as Senior Research Associate, Planning Board, Government of Andhra Pradesh with an experience of Five Years (2014-19) as practitioner in Public Administration. His Doctoral Thesis is on “Changing Nature of Governance in South India: With special Reference to Andhra Pradesh and Karnataka”. He delivered several lectures for undergraduate and post graduate students in many colleges in Telangana and Andhra Pradesh. He had published Research Papers in nationally reputed journals and also some chapters in various books. He had also contributed several papers at Regional, National and International Seminars/Conferences on various emerging concepts of Public Administration and in specific on e Governance.

Teaching Specialisations:

His subject specializations for teaching include Administrative Theory, Governance, e Governance, Comparative Public Administration, Disaster Management and Urban Governance.

Research Specialisations:

His research areas include Public Service Delivery, Governance Performance Evaluations of Citizen Satisfaction Feedbacks/Surveys, Impact of e Governance in Public Administration, Urban Governance and Disaster Management across Indian states.