General Notice

UG Admission 2026: Programme Preference Selection

The following information is hereby brought to the notice of all candidates who have applied for UG Admission 2026-27 through the Samarth Admission Portal.

After submitting their application for the respective Eligible programme(s), candidates are advised to carefully select and update their programme preferences for the programmes in which they are interested. The programme preferences submitted by the candidates will be considered for the admission process accordingly.

Candidates who do not update their programme preferences within the stipulated time shall be considered based on the preferences available in their application, as applicable. Once the preference submission deadline has passed, no request for modification or change of programme preference will be entertained.

The last date for updating the programme preferences shall be the last date of registration of the UG Admission 2026.

All candidates are therefore advised to review their selected programme preferences carefully and complete the preference submission within the prescribed deadline.
